Fed. Std. No. 161a

August 5, 1963
(W-B-131, Issue in Effect)

SUPERSEDING
Int. Fed. Std. No. 00161 (GSA-FSS)
March 1, 1962.

FEDERAL STANDARD

BATTERY, STORAGE, VEHICULAR, IGNITION, LIGHTING AND STARTING

Authority. This standard is issued pursuant to the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended, and its application to the purchase of commodities referred to herein is mandatory on all Federal agencies.

S1. Purpose and scope.—The purpose of this standard is the establishment of a standard list of lead-acid vehicular storage batteries for use in governmental automotive vehicles. This standard will keep the varieties of such batteries which are to be procured and stocked to the minimum consistent with requirements.

S2. Application.—Purchases from commercial sources under Federal Specification W-B-131, of the issue in effect on date of invitation for bids, shall be limited to items which have characteristics conforming to the standard items specified herein. Existing Government stocks of items with other characteristics shall continue to be utilized until exhausted. In those cases where this Federal Standard eliminates supply items and items so eliminated are under contract, if the contract cannot be negotiated or amended to conform to the standard items, the Federal Standard becomes mandatory at the contract expiration date.

S3. Standard characteristics and item identification.—The standard items with their applicable Federal Stock Numbers shall conform to the characteristics of Federal Specification W-B-131, listed below:

S4. Changes.—When a Federal agency considers that this standard does not provide for its essential needs, written request for changing or adding to the standard, supported by adequate justification, shall be sent to the Administration. This justification shall explain wherein the standard does not provide for essential needs. The request shall be sent in duplicate to the General Services Administration, Federal Supply Service, Standardization Division, Washington 25, D. C. The Administration will determine the appropriate action to be taken and will notify the agency.

S5. Conflict with referenced specifications.—Where the requirements stated in this standard conflict with any requirement in a referenced specification, the requirements of the standard shall apply. Nature of conflict between the standard and the referenced specification shall be submitted in duplicate to the General Services Administration, Federal Supply Service, Standardization Division, Washington 25, D. C.

Single copies of this standard are available without charge at the GSA Regional Offices in Boston, New York, Washington, D. C., Atlanta, Chicago, Kansas City, Mo., Dallas, Denver, San Francisco, and Auburn, Wash. Additional copies may be purchased for 5 cents each from the General Services Administration, Business Service Center, Washington 25, D. C.
