PREPARATION INSTRUCTIONS

10.1 General. The Production Personnel Manning and Schedule Report shall forecast the subsequent twelve months after the current reporting month and shall be compiled as the end of each month.

10.2 Format. The Production Personnel Manning and Schedule Report shall be in a contractor selected format.

10.3 Content. The Production Personnel Manning and Schedule Report content shall be as follows:

10.3.1 Monthly Forecast Quantities. The monthly forecasted quantities of all items planned to be produced (funded and unfunded). Forecasted quantities should be based on the current Production/Acceptance Schedule plus additional program adjustments resulting from production workload reviews including other sources of information relative to program producibility.

10.3.2 Direct Labor Staffing. The direct labor staffing, forecasted monthly by item, to support the production schedule in 10.3.1 above. The direct labor staffing should reflect actual staffing personnel and not a level of effort required.
