Use/relationship: The Specification Tree defines hierarchical and inter-relationship of the specifications for the system. The Specification Tree will be used to graphically depict the various Government and Contractor specifications that will be developed as part of the Systems Engineering Technical Review (SETR) process.

This Data Item Description (DID) contains the format, content, and intended use information for the data product resulting from the work task described by the contract statement of work.

Requirements:

1. Reference documents. The applicable issue of the documents cited herein, including their approval dates and dates of any applicable amendments, notices, and revisions, shall be as specified in the contract.

2. Format. Contractor format acceptable and may be depicted in a format similar to Figure 1 example.

3. Content. The specification tree shall contain the following:

3.1 Title of specification.

3.2 Name of Government agency or Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) developing the specification.

3.3 The Government system specification provided as part of a contract will be at the top of the hierarchical order of the specification tree.

3.4 Identify the SETR event and Baseline each specification pertains to. The SETR events include Systems Requirements Review 2 (SRR-2), System Functional Review (SFR), Software Specification Review (SSR), Preliminary Design Review (PDR), and Critical Design Review (CDR).

3.4.1 Identify the specifications for the Requirements Baseline at the completion of SRR-2.

3.4.2 Identify the specifications and architecture products for the Functional Baseline at the completion of SFR.
