MILITARY SPECIFICATION
FOR
SOFT SOLDERED ELECTRICAL CONNECTIONS
FOR SPECIAL WEAPONS ITEMS
INCLUDING OTHER RELATED ELECTRONIC DEVICES

This amendment forms a part of Military Specification Mil-S-50826B(MU),dated 1 October 1975, and is approved for use by all Departments and Agencies of the Department of Defense.

Page 1

2.1 Under Federal Specifications delete "QQ-S-571"and substitute "QQ-S-571 -- Solder, Tin Alloy; Tin-Lead Alloy; and Lead Alloy".

Under Federal Specifications delete "LLL-R-626-- Rosin, Gum, Rosin, Wood, and Rosin, Tall Oil".

Under Military Specifications delete "MIL-A-6091--Alcohol Ethyl, Specially Denatured, Aircraft", and "MIL-E-463 Ethyl Alcohol (For Ordnance Use)."

PAGE 1a

3.1.2 Delete entire paragraph and substitute "Flux". A separate flux conforming to MIL-F-14256, Type RMA, shall be used with type S solder.

PAGE 2

3.1.4 Delete entire paragraph.

3.2.3 Line 1: after "silver" place "or gold".

PAGE 10

4.3.4 Delete "Defect No. 206, Incorrect Inspection Dot".

User Activity
ARMY - MU

Preparing Activity
ARMY - MU

(Project 1395-A213)

FSC 1395

Source: https://assist.dla.mil -- Downloaded: 2026-10-22T20:39Z
Check the source to verify that this is the current version before use.