COMMERCIAL ITEM DESCRIPTION

FORCEPS, EAR, SMOOTH JAW (Hartman)

The General Services Administration has authorized the use of this commercial item description.

This commercial item description covers a Hartman, smooth jaw, ear forceps suitable for removing tissue from the external and middle ear.

Salient characteristics:

General. The forceps shall have a working length of 3 inches. The jaws shall be cup-shaped and rounded with flat faces.

Material. The material of the forceps shall be Class 4 corrosion-resistant steel in accordance with American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Designation F899.

Hardness. The forceps shall have a Rockwell Hardness C Scale (HRC) of 45 to 52. The hardness shall be tested in accordance with ASTM Designation E18 or ASTM Designations E92 and E140.

Style, design and dimensions. The forceps shall be in accordance with Defense Personnel Support Center (DPSC) Drawing No. 20425 for style, design and dimensions.

Finish. The finish of the forceps shall be mirror, satin or matte. The matte finish shall exhibit a uniform nondirectional surface texture equivalent to that produced by lightly blasting the prepared surface with fine abrasives under pressure.

Passivation. The forceps shall be properly passivated.

Corrosion-resistance. The forceps shall show no signs of corrosion or plating of copper when tested for corrosion resistance in accordance with ASTM Designation F1089.

Performance. The jaw faces shall meet completely upon closure. Operation of the handles shall be smooth and of equal resistance when opening or closing. Further, under no circumstances should looseness or free play of either shank permit misalignment of the jaws upon closing.

Identification marking. Forceps shall bear the contractor's name or registered trademark and the word "stainless". Forceps of foreign manufacture shall bear the name of the country of manufacture.

Workmanship. The forceps shall be free from defects which detract from its appearance or impair its serviceability.

Product Quality Level.

Visual and dimensional examination. Shall be examined to verify that design, construction and workmanship are in accordance with applicable requirements.

Materials. The supplier shall be responsible for performing tests to assure that materials are in accordance with requirements.

Unit. Each (EA). One forceps, as specified, constitutes one unit.

Quality Assurance Provisions.

Responsibility for inspection. Unless otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor is responsible for the performance of all inspection requirements as specified herein. Except as otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor may use his own or any facilities suitable for the performance of the inspection requirements specified herein, unless disapproved by the Government. The Government reserves the right to perform any of the inspections set forth in the specification where such inspections are deemed necessary to assure supplies and services conform to prescribed requirements.

Records. Records of examinations and tests performed by or for the contractor shall be maintained by the contractor and made available to the Government upon the Government's request, at any time, or from time to time, during the performance of the contract and for a period of three years after delivery of the supplies to which such records relate.

Inspection. Inspection, as used herein, is defined as both examination (such as visual or auditory investigation without the use of special laboratory appliances or procedures) and testing (determination by technical means of physical and chemical properties) of the item.

Tests. Tests shall be conducted to determine compliance with specification requirements. Where feasible, the same sample shall be used for the determination of two or more test characteristics.

Sampling for examination. Sampling for examination shall be conducted in accordance with MIL-STD-105, with an AQL of 1.0 (percent defective) and an Inspection Level of II.

Defects
Forceps not free from cracks, pits, burs, sharp edges, scale, rough areas or corrosion.
Finish of the forceps not as specified.
Style and design not as specified.

Sampling for tests. Sampling for tests shall be conducted in accordance with MIL-STD-105 and as specified herein. The unit of product for test purposes shall be one forceps. AQL shall be 1.0 (percent defective) with an Inspection Level of S-2.

Contractor certification. The contractor shall certify that the product offered meets the salient characteristics of this description and conforms to the producers' own drawings, specifications, standards, and quality assurance practices. The Government reserves the right to require proof of such conformance prior to first delivery and thereafter as may be otherwise provided for under the provisions of the contract.

Metric products. Products manufactured to metric dimensions will be considered on an equal basis with those manufactured using inch-pound units, providing they fall within the tolerances specified using conversion tables contained in the latest revision of Federal Standard No. 376, and all other requirements of this document are met.

If a product is manufactured to metric dimensions and those dimensions exceed the tolerances specified in the inch/pound units, a request should be made to the contracting officer to determine if the product is acceptable.

The contracting officer has the option of accepting or rejecting the product.
