AMENDMENT 2
29 SEPTEMBER 1959

SUPERSEDING
AMENDMENT 1
13 JULY 1959

MILITARY SPECIFICATION

CORROSION PREVENTIVE, AIRCRAFT ENGINE

This amendment forms a part of Military Specification MIL-C-6529C, dated 21 August 1958, and has been approved by the Department of Defense and is mandatory for use of the Departments of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force.

Page 2, paragraph 3.1: In the second line delete "except as specified in 4.2.1."

Page 2, paragraph 3.2.1: Add the following sentence "Qualification and Acceptance testing of the Type I material is required."

Page 2, paragraph 3.2.2: Delete and substitute "Type II. The Type II compound, ready-mixed material for reciprocating aircraft engines, may be a blend, by volume, of 3 parts of any lubricating oil qualified and accepted under Specification MIL-L-6082, Grade 1100, and 1 part of any qualified and accepted Type I concentrate of this specification. No Qualification or Acceptance Tests will be required for this blend. Type II material may also be prepared directly, using any lubricating oil qualified under Specification MIL-L-6082, Grade 1100, and a corrosion-inhibitive material, in which case it will be necessary to qualify the Type II material as specified in 4.2.5."

Page 2, paragraph 3.2.3: Delete and substitute "Type III. The Type III compound, ready-mixed material for jet aircraft engines which require lubricating oil qualified and accepted under Specification MIL-O-6081, shall be a blend by volume, of 3 parts of any lubricating oil qualified and accepted under Specification MIL-O-6081, Grade 1010, and 1 part of any qualified and accepted Type I concentrate material of this specification. However, no Qualification or Acceptance Tests will be required for this blend. Type III ready-mixed material shall be a satisfactory lubricant for jet engines which require Specification MIL-O-6081 lubricating oil for normal operation. There are no provisions for directly prepared Type III material."

Page 4, paragraph 4.2.1: Delete.

Page 4, paragraph 4.2.5: Delete the first sentence and substitute "The Qualification Tests of Type I or Type II material prepared directly shall consist of all the tests of this specification as described under "Test Methods."
