INTERIM COMMERCIAL ITEM DESCRIPTION
WAX, DENTAL, Impression

The General Services Administration has authorized the use of this Interim Commercial Item Description which was developed by DLA, Defense Personnel Support Center, Directorate of Medical Material, DPSC-RST, 2800 South 20th Street, Philadelphia, PA 19101-8419, based upon currently available technical information.

This interim commercial item description covers a dental impression wax used for refining dental impressions.

Salient characteristics:

The dental impression wax shall be suitable for use in refining dental impressions of full edentulous cases.

Material. The impression wax shall be of the formula suggested by the College of Dentistry, State University of Iowa. The impression wax shall be a non-pigmented wax composed of petroleum derivatives, mineral waxes and animal wax. The value of flow at 30 degrees Centigrade (^{o}C) shall be 76-85 percent when tested in accordance with the applicable paragraphs of the current American Dental Association Specification No. 4 Dental Inlay Casting Wax. The wax, at oral temperature, shall be of such body as to accurately copy detail and register muscle and tissue attachments in 3-5 minutes. The wax shall be sufficiently hard and rigid at ordinary room temperature to resist warping and change of detail. The wax shall not have an unpleasant odor or flavor or irritate oral tissues, and shall be compatible with all types of impression material.

The wax shall be furnished in a unit package containing a minimum of 60 grams of wax in stick form. The sticks shall be nominally 1/4 inch (0.6cm) in diameter and 4 7/16 inches (11cm) in length.

Instructions. Adequate and accurate instructions for use shall accompany each unit. In addition, two copies of the instructions shall be forwarded to the contracting officer for information purposes.

Workmanship. The dental wax shall be furnished clean and free of particulate matter and free of any other defect which detracts from its appearance or serviceability.

Quality Assurance Provisions.

Responsibility for inspection. Unless otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor is responsible for the performance of all inspection requirements as specified herein. Except as otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor may use his own or any other facilities suitable for the performance of the inspection requirements specified herein, unless disapproved by the Government. The Government reserves the right to perform any of the inspections set forth in the specification where such inspections are deemed necessary to assure that supplies and services conform to prescribed requirements.

Records. Records of examinations and tests performed by or for the contractor shall be maintained by the contractor and made available to the Government, upon the Goveinment's request, at any time, or from time to time, during the performance of the contract and for a period of 3 years after delivery of supplies to which such records relate.

Inspection. Inspection, as used herein, is defined as both examination (such as visual or auditory investigation without the use of special laboratory appliances or procedures) and testing (determination by technical means of physical and chemical properties) of the item.

Sampling for inspection. Sampling for inspection shall be conducted in accordance with MIL-STD-105. Where feasible, the same sample shall be used for the determination of two or more inspection characteristics. The unit of product for inspection puiposes shall be one package of 60 grams. Unless otherwise specified, sampling for examination shall be conducted at inspection level II, AQL 2.5, and sampling for tests (when applicable) shall be conducted at inspection level S-I, AQL 1.0.

Contractor certification. The contractor shall certify that the product offered meets the salient characteristics of this description and conforms to the producers' own drawings, specification, standards, and quality assurance practices. The Government reserves the right to require proof of such conformance prior to first delivery and thereafter as may be otherwise provided for under the provisions of the contract.
