COMMERCIAL ITEM DESCRIPTION

PAD, CLEANING, ELECTROSURGICAL TIP

The General Services Administration has authorized the use of this commercial item description.

This commercial item description covers a sterile, disposable cleaning pad suitable for cleaning coagulants from electrosurgical knives and forceps during surgery in medical treatment facilities.

Salient characteristics:

The disposable pad shall be a mild abrasive permanently bonded to adhesive backed foam, intended to clean coagulants from electrosurgical knives and forceps during surgical procedures.

The pad shall be sterile and disposable, approximately two inches by two inches (5 cm by 5 cm), and shall effectively adhere to both disposable and re-usable drapes.

The pad shall be radiopaque.

The pad shall be supplied individually packaged sterile in a commercially acceptable peel-open envelope capable of maintaining sterility of contents unless the package is damaged or opened.

Workmanship. The pad shall be free from defects which detract from its appearance or impair its serviceability.

Unit. Package (PG). One package containing 12 containers of 36 individually packaged sterile, electrosurgical tip cleaning pads per container, as specified, constitutes one unit.

Contractor certification. The contractor shall certify that the product offered meets the salient characteristics of this description and conforms to the producers' own drawings, specifications, standards, and quality assurance practices. The Government reserves the right to require proof of such conformance prior to first delivery and thereafter as may be otherwise provided for under the provisions of the contract.
