Block 10. Preparation Instructions (Continued)

e. Grade(s). Enter grade of fuel being reported, as appropriated, in spaces provided in the heading of each column.

f. Line No. 1 - Beginning Inventory. Enter total inventory that was on hand as of 0800 hours on the first day of the report period.

g. Line No. 2 - Quantity Received Enter total quantity received during the report period.

h. Line No. 3 - Total Issues. Enter new quantity issued to all programs, that is quantity issued minus defuels. -

i. Line No. 4 - Ending Book Inventory. Add lines 1 and 2 and from this sum, subtract line 3. Enter the result on line 4.

j. Line No. 5 - Ending Physical Inventory. Enter the actual quantity in bulk as determined by a physical inventory as on 0800 hours on the date of the report.

k. Line No. 6 - Gain or Loss. Subtract line 5 from line 4 and enter the result on line 6 (in parenthesis to indicate a loss). If line 5 exceeds line 4, subtract line 4 from line 5, and enter the result on line 6 as a gain. All entries on line 6 shall include a footnote explanation.

(1) Gains and losses of petroleum products due to temperature and handling variations are recognized as normal occurrences in all aspects of petroleum supply operations. The report shall address inventory variations exceeding normally accepted tolerances and identify corrective action.

(a) Compute the overall temperature and handling gain/loss. This figure (line 6) preceded by a plus (+) for a gain or minus (-) for a loss, is then divided by the sum of new issues (line 3) for the same period plus the beginning physical inventory (line 1). Enter the percentage of gain/loss immediately below line 6.

(b) Gains/Losses sustained by contractors in storing and handling bulk petroleum fuels are allowable when they do not exceed +/-.5 percent. Gains/losses which exceed the normal allowable tolerances shall include an explanation on the reverse of AF Form 210.

102.2 Supporting Documentation. The report shall include one copy of supporting documentation, ie., Material Inspection and Receiving Report (DD Form 250) or DOD Single Line Item Release Receipt Document (DD Form 1348-1) as specified in AFM 67-1, Vol I, Part Three, Chapter 1, Section H, para 168b. When applicable to USAF contracts one copy of Fuels Issue/Defuel Document (AF Form 1994) shall be included as specified in Section H, paras 168c and d of referenced manual. If applicable to other services or government agencies, the report shall include three copies of the supporting documents described in paragraphs 168c and d.
