COMMERCIAL ITEM DESCRIPTION

SUPPORT, KNEE

The General Services Administration has authorized the use of this commercial item description in preference to Interim Commerical Description A-A-0051452(DM), 16 May 1986.

This commercial item description covers three(3) sizes of an elastic knee support with spiral stays on both sides to give support to an injured knee.

Salient characteristics:

The knee supports shall be of the following sizes and circumference:

Size 1 - Small 11-1/2 to 13 inch (29.2 - 33 cm)
Size 2 - Medium 13 to 14-3/4 (33 - 37.5 cm)
Size 3 - Large 14-3/4 to 16-1/2 inch (37.5 -41.9 cm)

The knee support shall have three spiral stays on both sides to give support to an injured knee. The stays shall be covered with a heavy, non-elastic web fabric.

The supports shall have a removable sponge rubber pad on each side to deliver pressure over the cartilage area and to reduce irritation behind the knee.

The supports shall have a cut-out hole in front at the knee cap area. The edges of the supports shall be finished to prevent fraying and to reduce rolling of the supports.

Workmanship. The knee supports shall be free from defects which detract from their appearance or impair their serviceability.

Unit. Each (EA). One knee support, as specified, constitutes one unit.

Quality Assurance Provisions.

Responsibility for inspection. Unless otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor is responsible for the performance of all inspection requirements as specified herein. Except as otherwise specified in the contact or purchase order, the contractor may use his own or any facilities suitable for the performance of the inspection requirements specified herein, unless disapproved by the Government. The Government reserves the right to perform any of the inspections set forth in the specification where such inspections are deemed necessary to assure supplies and services conform to prescribed requirements.

Records. Records of examinations and tests performed by or for the contractor shall be maintained by the contractor and made available to the Government upon the Government's request, at any time, or from time to time, during the performance of the contract and for a period of three years after delivery of the supplies to which such records relate.

Inspection. Inspection, as used herein, is defined as both examination (such as visual or auditory investigation without the use of special laboratory appliances or procedures) and testing (determination by technical means of physical and chemical properties) of the item.

Tests. Tests shall be conducted to determine compliance with specification requirements. Where feasible, the same sample shall be used for the determination of two or more test characteristics.

Sampling for tests. Sampling for tests shall be conducted in accordance with MIL-STD-105 and as specified herein. The unit of product for test purposes shall be one (1) knee support.

Contractor certification. The contractor shall certify that the product offered meets the salient characteristics of this description and conforms to the producers' own drawings, specifications, standards, and quality assurance practices. The Government reserves the right to require proof of such conformance prior to first delivery and thereafter as may be otherwise provided for under the provisions of the contract.

Regulatory requirements.

Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act. If the product covered by this document has been determined by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration to be under its jurisdiction, the offeror/contractor shall comply, and INSTRUCTIONS: In a continuing effort to make our standardization documents better, the DoD provides this form for use in submitting comments and suggestions for improvements. All users of military standardization documents are invited to provide suggestions. This form may be detached, folded along the lines indicated, taped along the loose edge (DO NOT STAPLE), and mailed. In block 5, be as specific as possible about particular problem areas such as wording which required interpretation, was too rigid, restrictive, loose, ambiguous, or was incompatible, and give proposed wording changes which would alleviate the problems. Enter in block 6 any remarks not related to a specific paragraph of the document. If block 7 is filled out, an acknowledgement will be mailed to you within 30 days to let you know that your comments were received and are being considered.

NOTE: This form may not be used to request copies of documents, nor to request waivers, deviations, or clarification of specification requirements on current contracts. Comments submitted on this form do not constitute or imply authorization to waive any portion of the referenced document*(s)* or to amend contractual requirements.
