Block 10, Preparation Instructions (Continued)

10.2.8 Section I, item 8, avg auth Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS) daily. BAS from AF Form 3002 or automated forms at SIMS locations.

10.2.9 Section I, item 9, avg present for duty daily. The sums of items 7 and 8.

10.2.10 Section I, item 10, "A" ration Earned Income (E/I).

10.2.10.1 SIK E/I. The total of column A, section II multiplied by the entry in item 11, section I. The sum is entered beside SIK E/I. If the food facility operates under the Subsistence Credit Allowance System (SCAMS), no entry is made.

10.2.10.2 Cash E/I. Total cash sales earned minus operating charges and authorized supplemental allowances. If the food facility operates under SCAMS, leave blank.

10.2.10.3 Non-A La Carte Systems (ALACS) "A" ration E/I. No entry. If the facility operates under SCAMS, the totals of columns A and B, section II are added together and multiplied by the entry in item 11, section I. The sum is entered beside non-ALACS "A" ration E/I.

10.2.10.4 Total. The sum of SIK E/I and cash E/I.

10.2.11 Section I, item 11. Basic Daily Food Allowance (BDFA). The sum on line 4 of AF Form 200, BDFA, computed for the installation.

10.2.12 Section I, item 12, BDFA w/sup. The sum from the automated AF Form 200, line 6 computed for the installation. If no supplemental facilities, leave blank.

10.2.13 Section I, item 13, period of report. Self-explanatory.

10.2.14 Section I, item 14, satellite earned income. The total of AF Form 1119, column F. If no satellite facilities, leave blank.

10.2.15 Section II, breakdown of Weighted Rations (W/R). Section II is completed by extracting from the consolidated AF Form 1119 for each type of facility listed. Alert facility figures are not summed with other facilities receiving a supplement to the BDFA. If an installation does not operate a type of facility listed, leave the entry blank. The following explains completion of section II using an "A" ration facility and an alert facility as examples:

10.2.15.1 Section II, line 1, column A, SIK W/R served. The total of AF Form 1119, column A for "A" ration facilities.

10.2.15.2 Section II, line 1, column B, BAS W/R served. The total of AF Form 1119, column C for "A" ration facilities.

10.2.15.3 Section II, line 1, column C, satellite W/R served. The total of AF Form 1119, column E for "A" ration facilities. Leave blank if an "A" ration facility is not providing this service.

10.2.15.4 Section II, line 5, column A, SIK W/R served. Total of AF Form 1119, column A.

10.2.15.5 Section II, line 5, column B, BAS W/R served. Total of AF Form 1119, column C.

10.2.15.6 Section II, total, column A, SIK W/R served. Total all entries in the column.

10.2.15.7 Section II, total, column B, BAS W/R served. Total all entries in the column.

10.2.15.8 Section II, total, column C, satellite W/R served. The entry on line 1, column C, carried down to the total. (The entry should be the same as AF Form 1119, column E for "A" ration facilities).

10.2.16 Section III, Air Force dining halls and central food facilities. Section III entries are completed using the consolidated AF

10.2.23.27 Section IV, line 3, column F. The total ground support meals from AF Form 467 by adding total carryout meal earned income and total ground support meal earned income, item AA plus item BB.

10.2.23.28 Section IV, line 3, column G. The total from AF Form 467 on the right side of column F, HP-LR meal.

10.2.23.29 Section IV, line 3, column H. The total from AF From 467 on the right side of column I, flight snack meal.

10.2.23.30 Section IV, line 3, column I. The total from AF Form 467 on the right side of column G, bulk issue.

10.2.23.31 Section IV, line 3, column J. The total from AF Form 467 on the right side of column H, bulk liquid beverage.

10.2.23.32 Section IV, line 3, totals. The total from AF Form 467 on the right side of column N, totals.

10.2.24 Section V, cross/common service. The entries for section V are derived from AF Forms 1650 or 1650a; AF Form 463, Request for Flight Meals; and AF Form 2039, Request for Box Meals.

10.2.24.1 Ground support meals from A or A + facilities are converted to weighted rations (three meals equals one ration).

10.2.24.2 All meals served from a flight kitchen are converted to weighted rations. Coffee (brewed liquid) is entered in gallons. To convert bulk issue into meals, the bulk issue earned income for the day is divided by the meal rate (65 percent of the current BDFA). The resulting figure is rounded to the next whole number.

10.2.24.3 The number of rations in is entered in section V, columns B, D, F, H, J, L, and O.

10.2.24.4 To obtain the entries in section V, columns C, E, G, I, K, M, and P by ration type, the entries in column B, D, F, H, J, L, and O are multiplied by the current reimbursement rate provided by the food service officer. The coffee amount is computed by multiplying the number of gallons by the reimbursement rate for brewed coffee provided by the food service officer.

10.2.24.4.1 At ALACS bases, the SIMS-calculated food cost for recipe VOO3 is used, rounded to the nearest $.05.

10.2.24.4.2 At other than ALACS bases, the selling price of one gallon of brewed coffee is determined by multiplying .41 lb of ground coffee by the pound price of coffee, plus the cost of the number of individual packets of sugar and cream substitute to be furnished. The selling price is adjusted to the nearest $.05.

10.2.24.5 The others portion of cross service is identified on a separate sheet of paper for consolidation by MAJCOM. Identify ROTC by branch of service.

10.2.24.6 Contractor employees are identified in the contractor column. The current reimbursement rate provided by the food service officer is used to determine the dollar amounts in column P. Foreign national employees are identified in this column.

10.2.24.7 Total of all columns.

10.2.25 Section VI. Remarks Section.

10.2.25.1 Excess cost. The dollar value of each category claimed. Any items posted under the other portion of excess costs need to be identified and fully explained. The dollar value of excess costs reported in section VI must be the same as AF Form 249, column F, section III.

10.2.25.2 Contract data:

10.2.25.2.1 For food service attendant: "FSA."

10.2.25.2.2 For full food service: "FFS."

10.2.25.2.3 For base maintenance contract: "BMC."

10.2.25.2.4 Name of contractor. Name. "(8a)" if the contractor is a disadvantaged small business concern.

10.2.25.2.5 Items c through i. Self-explanatory.

10.2.25.2.6 To approximate the food service costs for a base maintenance contract, refer to the food service appendix of the contract and supporting price negotiation data (AF Form 633 and attachments). The applicable contractor general and administrative expenses and profit are added to the base food service costs.

10.2.25.3 Operations rations. Entries made in this part of Section VI are numbers of meals, not dollar values. The ending inventory of the current month is the beginning inventory of the next month. If any operational rations are transferred, medically condemned, or used for testing, the number of meals is inserted in the "other" line and the type of meal and transaction identified.
