MILITARY SPECIFICATION

CARTRIDGES, CENTERFIRE, FOR RIFLE, PISTOL AND REVOLVER (COMMERCIAL)

This amendment forms a part of Military Specification MIL–C–3030, dated 22 August 1949, and was approved by the Departments of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force for use of procurement service of the respective Departments.

Page 1, paragraph 3.4: Delete and substitute:

"3.4 Velocity.—The nominal mean velocity shall be that specified for the appropriate grade, type, and caliber of cartridge in the Technical Committee Manual of the Sporting Arms and Ammunition Manufacturers' Institute, in accordance with standard commercial practice."

Custodian:
Army—Ordnance Corps
Other Interest:
Navy—Or*MCS*
Air Force.

952171°—51—No. 179

Source: https://assist.dla.mil -- Downloaded: 2026-10-16T16:02Z
Check the source to verify that this is the current version before use.