L-R-00335A(GSA-FSS)
AMENDMENT-1
January 7, 1969

AMENDMENT
TO
INTERIM FEDERAL SPECIFICATION

RIBBON, FLAGGING, SURVEYOR'S

This amendment was developed by the Standardization Division, Federal Supply Service, General Services Administration, Washington, D.C. 20406, based upon currently available technical information. The General Services Administration has authorized this amendment as a part of Interim Federal Specification L-R-00335A(GSA-FSS), dated August 24, 1966.

PAGE 1

Paragraph 1.2.2 Classes. Add following new class:

"Class 3 (type I only) - Color stripe (one side) Range: blue and white, orange and white, red and white, yellow and white."

PAGE 3

Table I. Thickness requirements - Add under indicated headings the following entries:

Type	Class	Grade	Thickness, inches
			Minimum	Maximum
I	3	M	0.0019	0.0022
I	3	MH	0.003	0.004

Table II. Finished thickness requirements - Add under indicated headings the following entries:

Type	Class	Grade	Thickness, inches
			Minimum	Maximum
I	3	M	0.0022	0.005
I	3	MH	0.004	0.006

Paragraph 3.4.1 Length. Delete first sentence, and substitute:

"Type I, classes 1 and 3, and the type II, class 1 ribbon shall be furnished in rolls of 100 yards minimum length of continuous strip."

Paragraph 3.4.2 Width. Add new paragraph after 3.4.2:

3.4.2.1 Stripe width. The stripe width of the type I, class 3 ribbon shall be 9/16 plus or minus 1/16 inch with an angle of 45 plus or minus 1 degree. Stripes shall be printed on one side of the ribbon.

PAGE 4

Table III. Color requirements. Make following changes in table:

Delete Type I, class 1 heading and substitute:

Type I, class 1, and 3: 4/

At end of table add following footnote 4/:

4/ Class 3 ribbon colors shall meet the applicable Munsell color notation, chart numbers.

Source: https://assist.dla.mil -- Downloaded: 2026-10-26T11:09Z
Check the source to verify that this is the current version before use.