COMMERCIAL ITEM DESCRIPTION

PROBE, NERVE LOCATOR - STIMULATOR

The General Services Administration has authorized the use of this commercial item description.

This commercial item description covers a nerve locator-stimulator probe suitable for use in general surgical and microsurgical procedures.

Salient characteristics.

The probe shall be sterile, disposable and battery operated. The probe shall be powered by three (3) "N" size plastic alkaline or zinc chloride batteries contained in a suitable plastic housing. The probe shall be capable of outputs of 1/2, 1 and 2 milliamperes.

The probe shall be provided with instructions for use.

Each probe shall be individually packaged in a suitable container which shall maintain sterility until manually opened unless packaging has been damaged.

Delivery shall be within 6 months of the date of manufacture of the batteries. Expiration date shall not be less than 30 months after the manufacture of the batteries.

Workmanship. The probe shall be free from defects which detract from its appearance or impair its serviceability.

Unit. Package (PG). One package containing ten individually packaged sterile probes, as specified, constitutes one unit. The individual package shall be a suitable container capable of maintaining sterility of contents unless package is damaged or opened. Complete and detailed instructions for use shall be supplied with each unit.

Quality Assurance Provisions.

Responsibility for inspection. Unless otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor is responsible for the performance of all inspection requirements as specified herein. Except as otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor may use his own or any facilities suitable for the performance of the inspection requirements specified herein, unless disapproved by the Government. The Government reserves the right to perform any of the inspections set forth in the specification where such inspections are deemed necessary to assure supplies and services conform to prescribed requirements.

Records. Records of examinations and tests performed by or for the contractor shall be maintained by the contractor and made available to the Government upon the Government's request, at any time, or from time to time, during the performance of the contract and for a period of three years after delivery of the supplies to which such records relate.

Inspection. Inspection, as used herein, is defines as both examination (such as visual or auditory investigation without the use of special laboratory appliances or procedures) and testing (determination by technical means of physical and chemical properties) of the item.

Contractor certification. The contractor shall certify that the product offered meets the salient characteristics of this description and conforms to the producers' own drawings, specification, standard, and quality assurance practices. The Government reserves the right to require proof of such conformance prior to first delivery and thereafter as may be otherwise provided for under the provisions of the contract.

Regulatory requirements.

Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act. If the product covered by this document has been determined by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration to be under its jurisdiction, the offeror/contractor shall comply, and be responsible for compliance by its subcontractors/suppliers, with the requirements of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, as amended, and regulations promulgated thereunder. In addition, the offeror/contractor shall comply, and be responsible for compliance by its subcontractors/suppliers, with the requirements of all other applicable Federal, State, and local statutes, ordinances, and regulations.

INSTRUCTIONS In a continuing effort to make our standardization documents better, the DoD provides this form for use in submitting comments and suggestions for improvements. All users of military standardization documents are invited to provide suggestions. This form may be detached, folded along the lines indicated, taped along the loose edge (DO NOT STAPLE), and mailed. In block 5, be as specific as possible about particular problem areas such as wording which required interpretation too rigid, restrictive, loose, ambiguous or was incompatible, and give proposed wording changes which would alleviate the problems. Enter in block 6 any remarks not related to a specific paragraph of the document. If block 7 is filled out an acknowledgement will be mailed to you within 30 days to let you know that your comments were received and are being considered.

NOTE This form may not be used to request copies of documents, nor to request waivers, deviations, or clarification of specification requirements on current contracts. Comments submitted on this form do not constitute or imply authorization to waive any portion of the referenced document(s) or to amend contractual requirements.
