COMMERCIAL ITEM DESCRIPTION

BATTERY, NONRECHARGEABLE, HEARING AID

The General Services Administration has authorized the use of this commercial item description.

This commercial item description covers a nonrechargeable, zinc air cell hearing aid battery.

Salient characteristics.

The battery shall be a zinc air cell battery. The battery provided shall be in accordance with the size and minimum capacity indicated below.

TYPE	SIZE	CAPACITY
I	13	170 mAh
II	41	300 mAh
III	312	70 mAh
IV	675	400 mAh

Each battery shall provide a 1.4 volt DC power source for use in hearing aid devices. Each battery shall be sealed to prevent activation of the cell. The sealed cell shall not lose more than three (3) percent capacity per year.

The battery shall have a shelf life of at least 30 months from the date of manufacture. At least 24 months of shelf life shall remain at time of delivery.

Workmanship. The hearing aid battery shall be free from defects which detract from its appearance or impair its serviceability.

Unit. Package (PG). One package containing sixty batteries, as specified, constitutes one unit.

Quality Assurance Provisions.

Responsibility for inspection. Unless otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor is responsible for the performance of all inspection requirements as specified herein. Except as otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor may use his own or any facilities suitable for the performance of the inspection requirements specified herein, unless disapproved by the Government. The Government reserves the right to perform any of the inspections set forth in the specification where such inspections are deemed necessary to assure supplies and services conform to prescribed requirements.

Records. Records of examinations and tests performed by or for the contractor shall be maintained by the contractor and made available to the Government upon the Government's request, at any time, or from time to time, during the performance of the contract and for a period of three years after delivery of the supplies to which such records relate.

Inspection. Inspection, as used herein, is defined as both examination (such as visual or auditory investigation without the use of special laboratory appliances or procedures) and testing (determination by technical means of physical and chemical properties) of the item.

Tests. Tests shall be conducted to determine compliance with specified requirements. Where feasible, the same sample shall be used for the determination of two or more test characteristics.

Contractor certification. The contractor shall certify that the product offered meets the salient characteristics of this description and conforms to the producers' own drawings, specification, standard, and quality assurance practices. The Government reserves the right to require proof of such conformance prior to first delivery and thereafter as may be otherwise provided for under the provisions of the contract.

INSTRUCTIONS: In a continuing effort to make our standardization documents better, the DoD provides this form for use in submitting comments and suggestions for improvements. All users of military standardization documents are invited to provide suggestions. This form may be detached, folded along the lines indicated, taped along the loose edge (DO NOT STAPLE), and mailed. In block 5, be as specific as possible about particular problem areas such as wording which required interpretation, was too rigid, restrictive, loose, ambiguous, or was incompatible, and give proposed wording changes which would alleviate the problems. Enter in block 6 any remarks not related to a specific paragraph of the document. If block 7 is filled out, an acknowledgement will be mailed to you within 30 days to let you know that your comments were received and are being considered.

NOTE: This form may not be used to request copies of documents, nor to request waivers, deviations, or clarification of specification requirements on current contracts. Comments submitted on this form do not constitute or imply authorization to waive any portion of the referenced document*(s)* or to amend contractual requirements.
