5. QUALITY ASSURANCE PROVISIONS

5.1 Responsibility for inspection. Unless otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor is responsible for the performance of all inspection, examination, and test requirements specified herein. Except as otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor may use his own or any other facilities suitable for the inspection requirements specified herein, unless disapproved by the Government. The Government reserves the right to perform any of the inspections, examinations, or tests set forth in this description where such inspections, examinations, and tests are deemed necessary to assure supplies and services conform to prescribed requirements.

5.2 Contractor certification. The contractor shall certify and maintain substantiating evidence that the product offered meets the salient characteristics of this CID, and that the product conforms to the producer's own drawings, specifications, standards, and quality assurance practices, and is the same product offered for sale in the commercial marketplace. The Government reserves the right to require proof of such conformance prior to first delivery and thereafter as may be otherwise provided for under the provisions of the contract.

5.3 Certificate of compliance. Each contractor desiring to be listed as a suggested source of supply shall submit a DESC certificate of compliance to DESC-ELDS. This certificate shall state that the contractor's product meets all the requirements of this CID. In addition, a certificate of compliance shall accompany all products supplied to this CID.

5.4 Market acceptability. The following market acceptability criteria are necessary to document the quality of the product to be provided under this CID:

a. The company producing the item must have been producing similar equipments for a period of at least 2 years for the government or commercial users.

6. PACKAGING

6.1 Preservation, packing, and marking. Preservation, packing, and marking shall be as specified in the contract or purchase order.
