COMMERCIAL ITEM DESCRIPTION

FECAL SPECIMEN COLLECTION AND PREPARATION KIT

The General Services Administration has authorized the use of this Commercial Item Description.

This Commercial Item Description covers a fecal specimen collection and preparation kit for collecting, preserving, and transporting stool specimens for examination.

Salient characteristics:

The fecal specimen collection and preparation kit shall be suitable for the collection, preservation, and transportation of stool samples for later parasitological examination using a thimerosal/iodine/formalin procedure. It shall be suitable for field use or on board ships.

The kit shall contain the following:

a) An outer transport container with a 13 ml vial of thimerosal/formalin solution inside. The solution shall be composed of tincture of thimerosal (1-1000), formaldehyde, and glycerine.

b) One 1 ml dropper vial of Lugol's iodine solution.

c) Three applicator mixing sticks.

d) One plastic collection cup with snap-on lid.

e) A label on the 13 ml vial to identify the stool sample by patient.

An instruction sheet for kit use shall be supplied with each kit.

Components of the kit shall not be cracked, broken, leaking, or otherwise unusable.

The kit shall be free of oil, grease, dirt, or loose debris.

Workmanship. The fecal specimen collection and preparation kit shall be free from defects which detract from its appearance or impair its serviceability.

Unit. Package (PG). One package containing twenty fecal specimen kits, as specified, constitutes one unit.

Quality Assurance Provisions.

Responsibility for inspection. Unless otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor is responsible for the performance of all inspection requirements as specified herein. Except as otherwise specified in the contract or purchase order, the contractor may use his own or any facilities suitable for the performance of the inspection requirements specified herein, unless disapproved by the Government. The Government reserves the right to perform any of the inspections set forth in the specification where such inspections are deemed necessary to assure supplies and services conform to prescribed requirements.

Records. Records of examinations and tests performed by or for the contractor shall be maintained by the contractor and made available to the Government upon the Government's request, at any time, or from time to time, during the performance of the contract and for a period of three years after delivery of the supplies to which such records relate.

Inspection. Inspection, as used herein, is defined as both examination (such as visual or auditory investigation without the use of special laboratory appliances or procedures) and testing (determination by technical means of physical and chemical properties) of the item.

Tests. Tests shall be conducted to determine compliance with specification requirements. Where feasible, the same sample shall be used for the determination of two or more test characteristics.

Sampling for examination. Sampling for examination shall be conducted in accordance with MIL-STD-105, with an AQL of 1.0 (percent defective) and an inspection level of II. The unit of product for examination purposes shall be one fecal specimen collection and preparation kit as specified in this description.

INSTRUCTIONS: In a continuing effort to make our standardization documents better, the DoD provides this form for use in submitting comments and suggestions for improvements. All users of military standardization documents are invited to provide suggestions. This form may be detached, folded along the lines indicated, taped along the loose edge (DO NOT STAPLE), and mailed. In block 8, be as specific as possible about particular problem areas such as wording which required interpretation, was too rigid, restrictive, loose, ambiguous, or was incompatible, and give proposed wording changes which would alleviate the problems. Enter in block 8 any remarks not related to a specific paragraph of the document. If block 7 is filled out, an acknowledgement will be mailed to you within 30 days to let you know that your comments were received and are being considered.

NOTE This form may not be used to request copies of documents, nor to request waivers, deviations, or clarification of specification requirements on current contracts. Comments submitted on this form do not constitute or imply authorization to waive any portion of the referenced document(s) or to amend contractual requirements.
